4 free black magic spells incantations

The power inherent in sound can help to heal and transform. This secret was known to most cultures around the world. Ancient magickal rituals were always accompanied by sound in the form of verbal incantations or drums and other sound producing instruments.

In the Hindu culture, it is the word OHM that is believed to have started Creation. Words carry considerable power within them. Sounds create vibrations that change the surrounding atmosphere. When positive energy is expounded, positive results are created. In the sacred Indo-European language of Sanskrit, an incantation is called a "Mantra".

Here are some black magick spells which use incantations to enhance its powers.

Lost Animal Spell

-----
If you have recently lost a pet or a farm animal, try this spells to bring it back to you.

Walk to a crossroads near your home. Crossroads are important in magick because people believe that since the roads merge and separate, it is the best place where things happen.

Stand facing west, in the direction of the facing Sun.

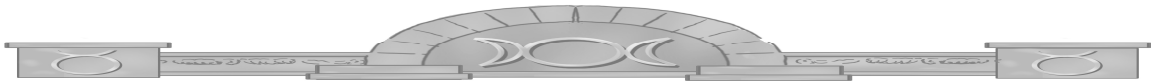

Bow from the waist nine times, each time calling your animal as you are used to.

Come back, <name of animal>

Visualize the animal running towards you. Do this three times so that you have called your animal a total of  $9 \times 3 = 27$  times.

When you have completed this spell, turn around in the direction of your home and do not stop or look back until you are home.

Person Banishing Spell

-----
This spell is worked when you wish to get rid of someone in your life who is making you miserable. For this spell, you will need the following:

1 purple candle
1 pen
1 square of brown paper
Banishing Oil
Saucer or fireproof dish

Gather all of the above and sit down in a private place. Meditate on your goal for a few minutes and visualize the person leaving your life. Request that this spell hurts none so that this move will be good for the person leaving as well as for you.

Write the name of this person on the brown paper with the pen. Now write your name over her/his name as though you are crossing it out.

Chant:

I cover you!
I cross you!
I command you!
I compel you!

<Name of person leaving>, child of <parent of person leaving>,
Get out of my house NOW!

Dress the purple candle with the banishing oil.
Place the paper on the saucer or dish and place the purple candle on it.
Burn the candle and visualize the person's exit from your life.

Anti-Sabotage Spell

If you believe that someone at work is maligning or slandering you, you may work on this spell to foil any such malevolence.

Get a piece of brown paper and write the person's name on it three times. Write your own name over these three names, chanting,

I cross you and I cover you!

With essential oils of bergamot, clove bud and lavender, anoint the corners of the brown paper. Now fold up the sheet and place it inside a red flannel mojo bag. Also add some cumin and a devil's shoestring root.

Keep this in a safe place at work and periodically, anoint the paper with a drop of essential oil of lavender.
