8 Easy Love Spells

There are more love spells in the world than any type of spells. There are spells to find love, return love, get rid of love, heal love, force a person to love us, and ways to determine if we are loved by someone. So regardless of what you need in love, you will find a spell that will help you.

Here are some simple spells for you to try:

Aphrodite Oil - Mix essential oil of myrtle, essential oil of rose and sweet almond oil to create a magickal love oil. Massage this all over your body before you take a nice, long, warm bath. You can also use this to dress love candles while petitioning Goddess Aphrodite to bring you love.

Amber Love Charm - The Romany culture considered mirrors magickal. To make your own magickal mirror, get a piece of amber. It can be a small stone or part of a necklace or bracelet or any other jewelry. On a full moon day, look at the moon through the amber while holding it in your left hand. Focus on all your desires and visualize your future life filled with love and joy. At night, when you go to sleep, remember to keep the amber under your pillow. When you wake up, the amber would have turned into a potent love charm. You can now use it to draw love into your life. Replenish the power of the charm by repeating this ritual at every full moon day.

Botanicals Spell - Find dried herbs or flowers that grow around your house. You can choose herbs such as rose, rosemary, mint, basil or flowers such as crocus, dandelion, hibiscus, hyacinth, lily, tulip and violet. We will also need a candle. It can be a red or pink candle. If you don't have either, you may use a yellow or orange candle. The candles have to be broad so that you can hollow out the base and pack the botanicals into it. Now burn the candle while visualizing the miracle of love entering you life.

Grow, Love Grow Spell - How can we make love grow? We can encourage love to grow by taking care of magickal plants that return their blessings to us. If you have a green thumb, try this spell: Get a basil plant or bleeding heart plant and grow it in a pot. Water while visualizing the plant as well as your love grows. You can also try growing any seed on which you have engraved the initials of your lover to make your lover go crazy over you!

Holly and Ivy spell - Represent the love of Dionysus and Ariadne with Holly and Ivy to attract more love into our life. Women looking for love from a man should carry a conjure bag filled with ivy while a man looking for love from a woman should carry a conjure bag of holly berries and leaves.

Juniper love spell - Collect some juniper berries and pierce them so that you can wear them strung as necklaces or bracelets. This will attract many lovers to you.

Key love spell - Find an old key. As you pick it up, chant the name of one you desire. This person will be yours in a short time.

Conjure Bag spell - Get a silk or satin bag and fill it with an arrowhead, a key, six coral beads, grains of paradise and orrisroot. Carry this bag around for good luck and to attract love to you.

Brightest Blessings.
