Three Gay Love Spells

Some botanicals such as hyacinth, deer's tongue (vanilla leaf, wild vanilla), Sampson snake root, etc. are believed to have a wonderful significance for gay men.

Spell 1 - Gather 1 teaspoon dried hyacinth, 1 tsp dried deer's tongue leaves and a small (tiny) piece of Sampson snake root. On a new moon day, take a long, warm bath lighting sweet smelling candles in the room and using herbal bath powder or soaps. This ritual is usually done so that all negative energy residing inside or outside the person moves away leaving him refreshed and energized.

Read a chapter from your favorite book, spiritual is preferred, but you can read any book that gives you hope and a feeling of acceptance to the world around you.

Place the hyacinth, vanilla leaves and the snake root near the altar. Also place nearby a small pouch which can hold all three of these items in it. Hold the hyacinth in your palms and chant:

Love, come to me!

Place the hyacinth in the pouch. Now take the vanilla leaves and chant the same. Complete with the snake root and hold the pouch in your hand while chanting "Love come to me!" and visualizing the person of your dreams rushing into your arms.

Place this pouch inside the underwear, close to your skin for the best results.

Spell 2 - Onion Spell

Gather these items:
1 small shallot or wild onion
A pot and some potting soil

On a new moon day, gather all the items. Fill the pot with potting soil and place the onion with the root side underneath. Cover with more soil and water it. Let it grow. Check it periodically and watch it so that it does not get too much water or too little water. If you are really lonely and need someone to love, water the plant with your tears. This spell is said to be most beneficial for male lovers.

Male Candle Spell

Get two candles shaped like men. Also buy some incense. Using a blunt knife, carve the names of both lovers on the candle.

On a new moon day, place the candles about nine inches apart and light them. Light the incense. Stay by the candles for nine minutes and visualize your lover coming closer to you. Snuff out the candles and repeat for the next eight days. On the ninth day, light both candles and chant:

Come to me Lover spell

Get the following ingredients to make Come to me Lover oil. Blend sweet almond oil with jasmine absolute, rose attar, neroli, gardenia absolute and tuberose absolute in a bottle. If you cannot get all of the ingredients, do try to get at least three of them in addition to the sweet almond oil. You may also substitute oil of petitgrain for the neroli since neroli is quite expensive

Every morning or when you go out in the evening, place a drop of this oil behind your ears and on your wrists. You may also carve a candle with your lover's name and dress it with this "Come to me Lover" oil before lighting it and meditating or visualizing your lover coming into your life.
